CASE NO. 1:07-cv-01664

JUDGE SOLOMON OLIVER, JR.

JUDGMENT ENTRY AND DECREE OF FORECLOSURE

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE SOLOMON OLIVER, JR.

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment. The real property that is the subject of this foreclosure action (the "Property") is as follows:

Situated in the City of Euclid, County of Cuyahoga and State of Ohio, and known as Sublot No. 49 in THE WILMORE REALTY COMPANY'S BLISS ROAD SUBDIVISION of part of Original Euclid Township Lot No. 26, Tract No. 16, as shown by the recorded plat in Volume 71 of Maps, page 40 of Cuyahoga County, Records.

The Clerk's Entry of Default is properly reflected on the Pacer docket. In response to the Motion for Default Judgment, the Court finds that Jason McVay and Jane Doe, Unknown Spouse, if any, of Jason McVay have been served with a Summons and Complaint but are in default for failure to file an Answer or other responsive pleading. As a result, with respect to such defendants, the Court hereby grants Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment and enters judgment in favor of Plaintiff for the relief sought by Plaintiff in its Complaint.

The Court finds that Jason McVay executed the promissory note referenced in the Complaint (the “Note”) and therefore promised, among other things, to make monthly payments on or before the date such payments were due. The Court further finds that Plaintiff is the owner and holder of the Note and that the sums due under the Note were accelerated in accordance with the terms of the Note and Mortgage. The Court further finds that Jason McVay executed and delivered the mortgage referenced in the Complaint (the “Mortgage”), that Plaintiff is the owner and holder of the Mortgage, and that the Mortgage secures the amounts due under the Note.

The Court finds that the Note and Mortgage are in default because monthly payments have not been made. The Court further finds that the conditions of the Mortgage have been broken and the same has become absolute, and Plaintiff is entitled to have the equity of redemption and dower of the current title holders foreclosed.

The Court further finds that there is due on the Note principal in the amount of $99,975.98 plus interest on the principal amount at the rate of 8.138% per annum from November 1, 2006. The Court further finds that there is due on the Note all late charges imposed under the Note, all advances made for the payment of real estate taxes and assessments and insurance premiums, and all costs and expenses incurred for the enforcement of the Note and Mortgage, except to the extent the payment of one or more specific such items is prohibited by Ohio law.

As a result, the Court hereby enters judgment for the amount due on the Note against Jason McVay.

The Court finds that the Mortgage was recorded with the County Recorder and is a valid and subsisting first mortgage on the Property. The Court further finds that the parties to the Mortgage intended that it attach to the entire fee simple interest in the property. Plaintiff’s

Mortgage is, however, junior in priority under Ohio law to the lien held by the County Treasurer to secure the payment of real estate taxes and assessments. All amounts payable under Section 323.47 of the Ohio Revised Code shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale before any distribution is made to other lien holders.

The Magistrate finds that the Defendant City of Euclid Department of Taxation claims some right, title, interest or lien upon the premises described herein, as set forth in its Answer filed herein, but that any right, title, interest, claim or lien said Defendant may have is inferior and subsequent to the lien of Plaintiff.

The Magistrate makes no finding at this time as to the right, title, interest or lien of said Defendant as set forth in its Answer filed herein, except to note that such claim, right, title, interest or lien of said Defendant is hereby ordered transferred to the proceeds derived from the sale of said premises, after the payment of costs of the within action, taxes due and payable and the amount found due Plaintiff, and the same is hereby ordered continued until further order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that unless the sums found to be due to Plaintiff are fully paid within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of this decree, the equity of redemption of the defendant title holders in the Property shall be foreclosed and the Property shall be sold free of the interests of all parties to this action. In addition, an order of sale shall issue to the Master Commissioner, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell the Property according to the law and the orders of this Court and to report his proceedings to this Court.

Notice of the time and place of the sale of the Property shall be given to all persons who have an interest in the Property according to the provisions of Section 2329.26 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Upon distribution of the proceeds, pursuant to the Order of Confirmation of Sale and Distribution in accordance with the provisions of Amended General Order 2006-16, a certified copy of the Order shall be issued to the Cuyahoga County Recorder and Clerk of Courts directing them to enter the same on the margin of the records of the mortgages and liens, releasing the liens adjudicated herein from the premises.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
